

BIOGRAPHY

Aleksandra M. Penjišević was born on February 24, 1973, in Raška, where she completed elementary school and high school. She earned the title of "mathematician graduate" at the Faculty of Mathematics of the University of Belgrade. She completed her master's studies at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Skopje.

She completed her doctoral studies at A.D. Tsenov Academy of Economics, Svishtov, Faculty Management and Marketing, primary unit Department of Strategic Planning in the Republic of Bulgaria, and defended her doctoral thesis entitled "Quantitative methods in the management of educational services in secondary schools in the Republic of Serbia." The degree of Doctor of Economic Sciences - Quantitative Economics was certified by the Agency for Qualifications by Decision No. 612-01-03-3-306/2020 dated June 17, 2020.

She spent most of her working career in education. She is an evaluator of assignments and tests in the National Student Testing project and assignments and tests in the PISA project. She is an associate of the Center for Culture, Education, and Media Akadamac from Sremski Karlovci and the Institute for Knowledge Management from Skopje as a regional coordinator for the territory of the Republic of Serbia.

She is a reviewer of the national body for accreditation and quality assurance in the process of accrediting higher education institutions and study programs and external quality control of higher education institutions in the Republic of Serbia. She is on the list of experts of the Agency for Control and Quality Assurance of Higher Education of Montenegro.

She is an expert in the fields of mathematics, statistics, and data analysis, with a proven track record in performing quantitative and statistical analysis in various market trends.